

He was our big mouth
- he'd always have an
answer for everything,
except for why he should still be here.

He was the last
off-site everyday,
then one night,
he left us way
too early.

He was such a polite lad, it
didn't make sense
when he left without saying goodbye.

Our industry can be physically and mentally tough. Together with our partners and supporters, the Lighthouse Construction Industry Charity are working night and day to ensure that no construction worker or their family feels alone in a crisis. So if you or a workmate need support, we are always here to help.
